

Flying Angels Reading Program

The goal of the the Flying Angel reading program is to recognize 3rd & 4th grade students who choose to spend their free time reading books, and take the time to respond in writing to the books they have read. Students may begin working on this project during the summer, but have a full 11 months to finish.

Requirements are:

- Read 10 fiction or biography chapter books.
- In order to qualify as a “Flying Angel”, books MUST be chapter books (about 100 pages). PLEASE NOTE: books that are required for classroom assignments do NOT count as Flying Angels. Please choose books that are “just right” for you. We trust that you are reading books that you did not read during previous years.
- If you are unsure if a book would count, please feel free to ask Ms. Barnes (barnesm@esdallas.org)
- We want you to try a variety of literature, so only two books by one author or in one series will count towards your final Flying Angels total.
- Submit your reading to us. When you do, please be sure to include a brief summary (main characters and events) as well as a few sentences stating your opinion of the book (your favorite part, whether you recommend this book to others, or any criticism.) Be specific on identifying the genre: Mystery, Historical Fiction, Science Fiction, etc. The preferred method for submitting your reading is the Google form, but they can be handwritten or typed. The most important part is making sure everything is in your own words.
- Be sure to include your first and last name and your teacher’s name in the spaces provided, and recommend keeping track of your submissions as well.
 - Deadline: May 1, 2018
- Those who complete the Flying Angel reading requirements will have a celebration at the end of the year.

Questions? Contact Ms. Barnes (barnesm@esdallas.org)

We are sharing a list of books recommended by ESD students, and hopefully you will find some great choices to read over your summer vacation or later in the school year.
